

PSY 321
1th MID-TERM

The exam consists of 20 multiple choice questions (worth 1 point each), 10 matching (each worth 1 point each), and three brief essay question (each worth 20 points) of which you are to select two to answer.

Reading covered by the exam:

James: The Self

Zimbardo: The Psychology of Imprisonment

Festinger: An Introduction to the Theory of Dissonance

Turner: Toward a Cognitive Redefinition of the Social Group

Pay particular attention to the subjects of:

The philosophical views and William James and George Herbert Mead. Understand they concepts of the self

Festinger's Cognitive Dissonance Theory and its implications regarding the outcome of Zimbardo's Prisoner study

Know the assumptions of John Turner's Social Identity Theory and the impact of group membership

Sample Brief Essay Question: Describe and contrast William James' and George Herbert Mead's concepts of the I and the Me.